Statement of Facts

On Sunday 6th November 2016 you were on board a route 68 bus, garage code 119, headed in the direction of WEST NORWOOD. During the course of this journey at about 1:17 PM you were approached by London Bus Inspector LB03897 and were not in possession of a valid ticket for travel. When questioned you said "I can't afford to buy a ticket". When informed that you were being reported you said "Do what you have to I guess"

Application is being made for a £175 contribution towards the costs of Transport for London.

Further costs may be incurred if additional documentation is required or if the matter is not resolved by a Single Justice.

There will also be an application for compensation of £2.40 in respect of the fare avoided

This statement is compiled from original notes made at 1:30 PM on 6 Nov 2016. On Sunday 6th November 2016 at 1:10 PM I was on duty in uniform at WALWORTH ROAD, SE17 when I ticket checked a route 68 bus, garage code 119, on a journey in service to WEST NORWOOD. On boarding, the OYSTER CARD READERS WERE CHECKED. I approached a male passenger standing on the lower deck, who I now know to be Mr Jason Harrington of 5 Connaught Road, Woolwich, London, SE18 6UQ, who was taking a journey from ELEPHANT AND CASTLE to WOOLWICH a fare of £2.40. Mr Harrington was not able to offer a ticket for inspection. I said to Mr Harrington "You are aware that you need a ticket to travel on this service and that there are signs clearly displaying the penalty for not having a ticket". He said "Yes, but I'm unemployed, I can't afford a ticket". I asked him for his name and address, which he gave as Mr Jason Harrington, 5 Connaught Road, Woolwich, London, SE18 6UQ. These details were verified by voters check. I said "I will be submitting a report to the Transport For London Prosecutions Team for their consideration. He said "Do what you have to I guess"
